

Undergraduate Courses
Key Dates for September 2022 Entry

We are delighted that applications are soon to open for our Undergraduate courses here at Central School of Ballet.

We will be encouraging all potential applicants to attend an audition in person at one of the below locations. Overseas students or anyone with extenuating circumstances that don't allow them to attend any of our audition days, will be invited to submit a video audition.

We will shortly be releasing information regarding the audition process for September 2022 entry. In the meantime, please refer to the key dates below.
