

Communications Officer

Salary - £24,000 per annum

Central is seeking a Communications Officer to join the busy and friendly team at the School's new state-of-the-art Countess of Wessex Studios in London's Southwark, part of the South Bank arts community. We're looking for a candidate with communications experience, either in-house or with an agency, with an understanding of arts and/or further education to help communicate our world-class conservatoire education and all aspects of Central's activity including the Ballet Central tour. This is an exciting time for Central as we work to meet the current needs of the dance industry, and the students, audiences, and communities that we serve.
