These Terms and Conditions apply to all undergraduate courses of the Central School of Ballet (CSB):

- The Foundation Degree Course in Professional Dance and Performance
- The BA (Hons) Top-up Course in Professional Dance and Performance

This document sets out the terms and conditions between Central School of Ballet (Central) and students on our undergraduate higher education courses. It contains important information and you should read these terms and conditions carefully before accepting your offer to ensure that you understand the contents as these terms and conditions, together with other policies and procedures of the School, will become binding on you (and also your parent / guardian / named responsible adult if you are under 18) and us when a contract is formed between us in accordance with condition 2 of these terms and conditions.

IMPORTANT TERMS OF THIS CONTRACT

Central would like to bring to your attention the following important terms of this contract. Please also refer to Section 3 of this contract for further information on important terms.

- 1.1 These terms and conditions govern the relationship between you and Central School of Ballet, and it is important that you read them carefully prior to accepting your offer to ensure that you understand their contents. By accepting Central's offer of a place on a Course, you (and your parent / guardian / named responsible adult if you are under 18) accept these terms and conditions in full, which along with your offer and Central's rules, regulations, policies and procedures form the contract between you (and your parent / guardian / named responsible adult if you are under 18) and Central, in relation to your studies at the School.
 - 1.2 These terms and conditions will become binding on you and us when we confirm your place on a course of higher education in writing following your written acceptance of an offer, and any conditions set out in your offer have been met to our satisfaction, at which point a legal contract is formed between you and Central on the basis of the terms and conditions set out in your offer letter, the terms and conditions set out in this document, and the terms and conditions set out in the policies and regulations listed in Section 3 of this contract.

Students paying Home fees

- 1.3 For students paying Home undergraduate fees who are new entrants to a Course of higher education at Central in 2025/26 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the Course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study by an amount determined in accordance with measures set by Government. Any such increased fees will not exceed the fee cap current in respect of the relevant period. For more information, please consult the Central School of Ballet's Fees Policy, Annex A to these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.4 The above term applies to all undergraduate students paying Home fees, whether you are funded via the Student Loans Company or an equivalent funding body, or you are self-funded.

Students paying International fees

- 1.5 For students paying International undergraduate fees who are new entrants to a Course of higher education at Central in 2025/26 or new entrants to a course in subsequent years, the Course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study but will not exceed 5% in any one year.
- 1.6 If you do not pay Course fees in accordance with these terms, Central reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any Course fee debt is paid or cancelled by Central in accordance with its Fees Policy. If you cease to be a student of Central, because for example you withdraw or Central terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any Course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the Fees Policy.
- 1.7 You should be aware that the majority of the Courses of study and their assessments can be physically demanding. In addition, learning dance by its very nature includes elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason, we require students to ensure they have private health insurance as a condition before registration can be completed. Please check the relevant Course Summary Document which sets out this is a mandatory requirement.
- 1.8 Health care can be obtained free of charge from the NHS for 'home students'² and after paying a government health surcharge for international students but waiting times for treatment are unpredictable and may result in disruption to and interruption of your studies. Long periods of absence may result in you being unable to complete your course.

Validating University

1.10 For the purposes of this contract:

- Course fees include: tuition, course materials, learning resources and assessment costs, and are set out in the relevant Course Summary document for each Course of higher education. Please see also the Central's Fees Policy.

Glossary of Key Words used in this Document

‘Course’ is used to refer to the full programme of training, study and assessment which you will undertake in pursuit of an award. Each course is made up of a number of modules, and follows the academic regulations of the validating university. Central’s degree courses are validated and awarded by the University of Kent.

‘Enrolment’ The annual process by which you formally confirm you are beginning each year of your course. Enrolment must normally be fully completed in order to receive full access to School and course facilities. Enrolment is carried out by Central, and takes place annually (i.e. each student must re-enrol at the start of each academic year in order to continue their studies).

‘Guardian’ means an adult who is not your parent, but who has legal responsibility for you. A guardian takes parental responsibility for a child until they reach 18 years of age and are legally an adult, and looks after the child they are responsible for, including making decisions for the child.

‘Intermission of studies’ (also known as ‘interruption’ or ‘suspension’ of studies), is where you take some time out from completing your studies within the normal anticipated timeframe. This means your registration as a student with Central remains current, even though you will not be enrolled for the period of time out you are taking (please also see the section ‘Registration’ below, for further information). Depending on the length of time away from studies that you need to take, this may or may not have an impact on the point at which you can re-join your course and resume your studies, and in some instances you may be required to restart a module or academic year from the start. Intermitting or interrupting your studies might also have implications for your student finance arrangements if you are in receipt of funding from the Student Loans Company (or another funding body such as the Student Awards Agency for Scotland). Any authorisation of a period of intermission must be done in accordance with the academic regulations of the validating regulations. Students studying under a Student visa should note that intermission of studies may impact upon the terms of your visa and/or alter your visa status.

‘Named Responsible Adult’ is someone who has agreed to act in your interests and take responsibility for you in matters relating to your higher education course of study. Applicants and students who are estranged from their parents may name a ‘responsible adult’ who has agreed to take responsibility for them and will be the person with whom Central will communicate with where necessary, with regard to any aspect of your study. If you have any questions about this, you should contact a member of staff at Central to discuss it further.

‘Registration’ is the final part of the admissions process, where you confirm and update as necessary the personal details we hold for you which you provided in your application; confirm the School course you are intending to study, and agree to abide by, comply and engage with our Terms and Conditions and all related regulations and policies. Registration confirms that you are a student of Central School of Ballet.

‘Validated’ Validation is defined by the Quality Assurance Agency as ‘a process by which a degree-awarding body judges a module or course developed and delivered by another organisation and approves it as being of an appropriate standard and quality to contribute, or lead, to one of its awards’.

'Validating University' The higher education institution that validates the courses and awards your degree. Your degree certificate will state that you have a degree from the validating university.

Queries and Enquires

Queries and enquires about these Terms and Conditions should be addressed in writing to the Registry and Admissions Manager.

- 3.6 The contract may be ended by Central and your enrolment terminated if the relevant conditions are not met or our terms not complied with, as set out in the documents specified in condition 3.3, above. For example, failure to comply with the code of conduct could result in Central taking action against you under the Non-Academic Misconduct policy, which could result in termination by Central of your enrolment on your course and of the contract.
- 3.7 It is also a condition of your contract that any information submitted with or in relation to your application is true, genuine, accurate and complete (i.e. does not omit information you have been asked to provide). Please see Section 4 of the Admissions Policy 'False, fraudulent or misleading information provided by applicants' for further information.
- 3.8 Breach of any condition will be addressed according to your registration status. If you have accepted your offer but have not yet registered and enrolled for your Course, this contract may be terminated immediately by Central, at our discretion. Central must comply with its own duties under immigration law and as a result may have to withdraw sponsorship of your Student route visa for a number of reasons. Queries regarding visas should be addressed directly to the Registry and Admissions Manager.

Applicants and students with disabilities and additional support needs

- 4.2 If you have a disability and/or any additional support needs you are strongly encouraged to disclose this as soon as you apply or at any time during the admissions process, in order that we can best support you through your studies. Central may tailor individual support plans to students under the Support Through Studies Policy, either prior to enrolment or at any time on the Course once enrolled. Disabled students are encouraged to disclose their support requirements so that we can endeavor to meet them during the audition process and subsequent training. Failure to disclose your disability may mean that you will not get the support to which you are entitled, and any necessary adjustments may be delayed or may not be made.

Disclosure of pre-existing physical injuries and conditions

- 4.3 Central's Courses involve demanding physical dance training. We will therefore routinely request whether applicants have any pre-existing injury or condition that they wish to disclose prior to commencing studies, in order that they can be appropriately supported. Where candidates do not disclose a pre-existing injury or condition ahead of commencing their studies, or enrolled students fail to disclose injuries or conditions arising after enrolment, Central accepts no liability for any exacerbation or impact upon such an injury or condition. - 5.3 The deferral of the offer of a place for enrolment in a later year of study is not normally permitted by Central; we will exercise our discretion in our consideration of a request to defer a place for enrolment, particularly where a deferral may be a reasonable adjustment for a disabled student.

- 5.4 Failure to enrol at the start of your Course in accordance with the conditions set out in Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions will result in your relationship with Central and this contract being terminated and you will need to reapply from the start to be considered for a place to study at Central in a future year. 14. Data Protection

- 14.1 Central School of Ballet (“Controller”) collects, holds and otherwise processes ‘personal data’ which may include sensitive personal data known as ‘special category data’ as defined by the Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulations (2018) about applicants and students of the school which is provided to them by you (or which is otherwise received from third parties) for their own, separate purpose(s), in accordance with the Controller’s Data Processing Statement. Central’s Data Processing Statement can be found in the ‘Policies and Procedures’ section of our website.
- 14.2 This personal information is generally processed by the Controller for the following general purposes: to administer admissions, courses of study and pastoral care; to monitor student performance; to send communications to students; to compile statistics for internal monitoring and enhancement purposes or for publication; and to make required returns to external bodies, including to the regulator (the Office for Students) and agencies of UK Government (eg as a condition of leave to remain in the UK). More specific details are set out in our Data Processing Statement.
- 14.3 Central will share, as necessary, information with the University of Kent regarding student cases¹ which may include personal sensitive data as part of the fair and proper investigation and handling of a student case, and to maintain and enhance standards and good practice. ‘As necessary’ means where it is necessary to share information regarding a student case in order to investigate and resolve it (including Appeal Panel hearings). All such information will be treated confidentially. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the Central’s procedures you should contact the Registry and Admissions Manager.

However, you should note that the structure of Courses of study at Central can often require students to undertake a number of small group performance projects and similar activities, and you may on occasion be asked to express preferences for which of the available group performance projects or similar activities you wish to undertake. Whilst we undertake to provide each student with an appropriate range of opportunities throughout the duration of the course as set out in the published information including prospectus and course summary, we can not guarantee to accommodate the individual preferences of students in its allocation of performance projects or similar activities to students, although we will make reasonable endeavors to meet student preferences. Consequently, you may not get to take part in the group performance projects or similar activities that you have expressed as being your preferred projects or activities and, where this is the case, the Central will not be in breach of the contract.

- 17.1 If it reasonably considers it to be necessary, Central may make reasonable changes to the content, syllabus, mode of delivery or assessment, and/or timetable of Courses set out in the prospectus and course summary document which:
- 17.1.1 are not material to the overall learning outcomes of the course (for example, moving the timing of a particular module or project within the year, or a change in the staff delivering the module or project);
 - 17.1.2 will benefit you or other students' training (for example, enabling you or other students to benefit from additional classes with visiting professionals);
 - 17.1.3 are caused by matters outside our control (as set out in condition 19); and/or
 - 17.1.4 are in order to comply with changes in the law and/or the instructions of Central's regulators (such as the Office for Students), the University of Kent, and/or professional body.
- 17.2 Central may discontinue, suspend and/or not provide Courses if there are insufficient numbers of student enrolments to make a Course viable and/or for any reason outside the school's control (as set out in Condition 19). Where relevant, the Student Protection Plan may apply.

- 18.1 Central may from time to time revise the terms and conditions of the contract including the rules, regulations, policies and procedures referred to in these terms and conditions:
- 18.1.1 in circumstances where Central reasonably considers this to be necessary for the enhancement of its provision in the best interests of students and/or for the appropriate management of its resources and/or its student community; and/or

- 18.2 Where changes are made to the terms and conditions of the contract under condition 17, 18 or 19, where necessary we will undertake suitable consultation with students and take all reasonable steps to communicate and explain these changes you with as much notice as possible.
- 18.3 It may also be necessary for Central to make changes to these terms and conditions, including to respond to the factors identified under condition 17 'Course changes, discontinuance, suspension and non-provision'. Where changes are made, these will normally be brought into effect at the start of the next academic year. However, in certain circumstances it may be necessary for the changes to be implemented during the course of an academic year. We will notify students of any proposed changes to these terms and conditions as soon as is reasonably practicable and will seek student agreement to significant change (as defined in Section 17 of these Terms and Conditions).
